Privacy Policy

Pacific Northwest Expeditions (NPE) understands that keeping your personal information safe and secure is a priority.

We will use your personal information provided to us for the sole purpose relating to NPE's services. We only collect information that you voluntarily provide to NPE from the website, submitted forms, or any other type of communications (verbal, emailed or written); we do not acquire any additional personal information from other outside sources or services. We will not sell, share or rent the information collected from the website, submitted forms, or any other type of communications verbal, emailed or written. We will not sell, share or rent your personal information to any other person, company, or to any third party outside NPE other than specifically necessary to fulfill your requested services with NPE that may include, but not limited to, the booking of airfares, railroad, bus transportation, or any other required services to make your excursion with NPE complete.

Unless you ask us not to, we may contact you in the future via email or U.S. Postal Service to tell you about specials, services or changes. You may opt out of any future contact from us at any time, by email or by phone.

We take every precaution to protect your personal information. When you provide NPE with sensitive personal information (such as credit/debit card number) that information is recorded in written, in hard-copy form, and placed into a dedicated client folder at our main office in Mukilteo, Washington. This sensitive personal information is not stored on any company computer or in the icloud.

All client information that becomes obsolete is shredded and disposed of professionally.

Sincerely,

North Pacific Expeditions
