

North Pacific Expedition

Activity Risk Acknowledgement

I, the undersigned passenger acknowledge that I have read, received and understand the following written risk statement in association with North Pacific Expeditions (NPE).

North Pacific Expeditions and the crew are released and hold harmless from any liability for loss, damage or injury which might result from NPE's activities. Any activity on the sea presents risk to those participating. It is therefore imperative that every effort by me and my dependents is made to reduce the risk to an acceptable and appropriate level. I fully recognize and accept this principle and the responsibilities associated with participating in these activities.

In order to enjoy the outdoors and/or wilderness activity and associated equipment where I may have limited to no skill, the crew of NPE has educated me that the activity is not without risk.

Certain activities require minimum levels of fitness, ability and health (physical, mental and emotional) and each person has a different capacity for these activities.

These inherent risks can cause loss or damage to NPE equipment, injury, illness, or extreme events such as trauma or death.

Some of those risks but not all or described below:

Act of nature: Rock fall, avalanche, weather conditions, e.g. wind, thunder, lightning, temperature

Weather: Heat stroke, sunburn, dehydration, hypothermia, physical exertion

Falling: Getting in /out of dinghy or kayak, walking on the beach or day hiking in the forest

Equipment and or operator failure

On the water risks: Falling, water flow, current, tidal action, wake from other boats, falling overboard, collision with other boats, capsizing, encounter with mammal(s)

On land risks: Encounters with animals, insects, poisonous plants, trips, stumbles & falls

The above inherent risks are not a complete description so that other unknown or unanticipated risk can result in injury, illness, or extreme events such as trauma or death. My participation in these activities are strictly voluntary.

I am aware of the risks connected with water activities and elect to participate voluntary.

I declare, that I can participate in these activities, take full responsibility for myself, and all dependents in my care as a legal parent/guardian, for bodily injury, death, loss of personal property, and expenses which can result from these risks.
